Mrs. George Henry Woodworth, whose husband was killed by a train on Christmas Eve, near Montrose, will probably sue the New-York Central and Hudson River Railroad for damages. It was a needlarly sad case. Mr. Woodworth and his wife had lived near Montrose for about ten years. On Christmas Eve he had promised the family of H. S. Peterson, who had gone to New-York City for the day, that he would drive over to Verplanck's Point and meet them on their arrival there in the steamer Chrystenah. About 6 o'clock in the evening he went over to the Peterson homestead, some distance away, to hitch up the team, promising his wife to return in a rew minutes and take her along. An hour passed and he did not return. His wife went out to look for him. She did not find him anywhere about the Peterson place. On returning she stumbled across her husband, lying dead by the railroad track, near a crossing. He had been introck shortly after 6 o'clock by the Poughkeepsie iocal The Coroner's jury censured the railroad company for not having a gate at the crossing, not keeping the crossing clear from snow and ice, and the engineer for not blowing his whistle when approaching the crossing. Mr. Woodworth had been in the employ of the railroad in the engineer for not blowing his whistle when approaching the crossing. Mr. Woodworth had been in the employ of the railroad in the auditing Jepartment for many years. He was forty-fively years old.

SING SING.

Special services will be held in St. Augustine's Church to-day. In the afternoon the pupils of the Sunday School will receive their gifts and prizes. The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court has reversed the verdict found last February in the Supreme Court before Justice Keogh in the contest over the ownership of a portion of Pleasant over the ownership of a portion of Pieasant Square, Sing Sing, between that village and Daniel D Mangam. At that time the jury found a verdlet for the village, which is now reversed upon the ground that the Judge charged the jury upon a question of fact which should have been left to them for determination. A new trial will now be gecessary, which will be the fifth in this long and stubbornly contested case.

BAR ASSOCIATION APPEALED TO.

THE GRAND JURY'S PRESENTMENT ON THE

PRACTICES OF SHYSTER LAWYERS. The December Grand Jury yesterday adjourned and handed up to Recorder Goff, in Part I of General Sessions, a presentment regarding the prac-tices of certain lawyers who solicit clients among the prisoners in the Tombs and in the various police court prisons. The Grand Jury was charged by the Recorder to look into these abuses. The presentment sets forth that a large quantity of testimy has been taken, much of which goes to show that there are improper combinations between cerlawyers and some prison subordinates, though the latter are forbidden to recommend any counsel to accused persons. It is the opinion of the Grand Jury that there should be some restriction of the liberty by which lawyers may now send to the cells of prisoners for whom they may preend to be counsel. Recommendation is made that a book be kept in the prison, in which shall be inscribed the name of the counsel for each prisoner, and that no other lawyer shall be allowed to see the

and that no other lawyer shall be allowed to see the accused person.

Evidence was introduced to show that some lawyers are in the habit of taking fees from prisoners and giving no adequate service therefor. The Grand Jury believes that cases of this kind should be called to the attention of the Bar Association, which could lay complaint before the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court and have the guilty lawyers disbarred.

The Recorder said he would take the steps recommended by the Jury, and ordered that copies of the presentment be sent to the president of the Har Association and to the Appellate Justices.

The Grand Jury has the names of several lawyers against whom irregular practices are alleged.

ELLIOTT CAPTURES THE PRIZE.

HE DEFEATS FULFORD AT THE DEXTER PARK TRAPS BY FOUR BIRDS.

Those expert handlers of the breech-loading shot gun, Messrs, Elliott and Fulford, have met once more at the traps to contest their skill and decide who was entitled to championship henors. The match took place at Dexter Park, Long Island, yesterday afternoon, and was witnessed by several hundred people. Elliott won by a score of ninety-four out of a hundred birds. Fulford killed ninety birds. The match was a highly in-teresting one, because, for one thing, it was an honest exhibition of the snooters' skill, and the scores made were creditable to both men. It was shot under Association rules each man shoot ing at thirty yards rise, with fifty yards houndary. The match was for $100 a side and "The Kansas City Star" Cup, emblematic of the championship of America, the loser to pay for the hird a James A. R. Eillott comes from Kansas City, and Fas a splendid record as a trap shot. In a match recently at Cincinnati, Ellist and Cartain Brevetled for first place, each having killed ainety-nine out of one hundred birds. E. D. Fulford lives in Utica, and came into prominence as a shooter in

Among those who witnessed yesterday's match were Noel Money, Captain II, L. Granmer, of Nerfolk, Dr. G. V. Hudson, Louis T. Duryea, Thomas Keller and Harvey McMarchy, of Syracuse; Miss Anale Oakley, the champion woman rife shot Frank B thr. W. R. Herrinston, Dr. Orr, G. Grieff, F. Van Dyck, Aaron Woodraff and W. C.

Frank B ther. W. R. Herrichton.

Goleff, F. Van Dyek, Aaron Woodruff and W. C. Cannon.

The birds were a good lot, and the majority of them left the traps as right quarterers, although them were also a large numoer of fast drivers and twisting incomers. Elliott appeared to have the best luck, as three of his birds which looked as though they would be lost to him struck the low boundary whe screen and were saved. Fulford's first figeon was a right quartering incomer, and he had no trouble in grassing R. He met his Waterloo on the next bird, however, which was a right quarterer and an easy one at that. Fulford's seventeenth bird was a wisting incomer, and although he hit it hard it just mataged to get out of bounds and was lost. This was the first of Fulford's hard luck, and he had a repetition of it with several other birds.

Elliett shot in fine form from the start, and had all straight kills until his thirtieth bird, which was an incomer and got clean away. He then resumed his occupation of grassing everything in sight until his seventieth round. After the match Elliott declared he had killed every bird he shot at. All that got away he declared, fell dead out of bounds with the possible exception of one.

Following are the scores:

INTERCOLLEGIATE GOLF PROPOSED. A meeting of college men interested in golf was held at the University Athletic Club in West Twenty-sixth-st. at noon yesterday. The Rev. Rod erick Terry acted as chairman, and Joseph H. Choate, jr., as secretary. The meeting was called to decide whether it was desirable to give an intercollegiate golf tournament. A rough draft of a onstitution was drawn up, the adoption of which constitution was drawn up, the adoption of which it was decided to recommend to the colleges. It was also recommended that an Executive Committee be appointed to arrange for an inter-ollegiate tournament. This will probably be played at Ardsley Casino. The delegates present were Roderick Terry, jr., and Amos Pinchot, of Yale; Thomas J. Orbison and J. T. Winson, jr., of the University of Pennsylvania, L. P. Bayard and W. D. All the members of the Board-William Purcell, of Rochester; William H. H. Webster, of Buffalo, and Churies L. Phipps. of East Rockaway-were present. Colonel John Jay, president of the New-York Cab Company, was on hand to present its side of the case. He was accompanied by Jam's Heffernan and Alian Lexaccompanied by Jam's Heffernan and Allan Lexow, treasurer and general manager, respecttively, of the company. About twenty-five of the striking cabmen came to the hearing ready to tell their troubles. This they did forcibly and at great length, and the officials of the company were just as forcible in their denials of the accusations made against them and their methods. James F. Maher, recording secretar; of the Liberty Dawn Associative, emducted the cabmen's side of the case.

Severimen who had been employed in the Forty-fifthe. Stables of the company testified that they had been compelled to work overtime, that sufficient time had not been allowed them to get their meals, and that they had been unfairly treated in various other ways. Every witness said that had received unjust treatment at the hands of John Foster, the superintendent of the Fortyfifthest stable. Foster made a general denial of all that was charged against him.

Colonel Jay took the stand in behalf of the company and said that the company was ready at all times to entertain any complaint that the men might make as employed of the company but that it would never consent to recognize the union.

LOCAL BUSINESS COMPLICATIONS.

FIFTH AVENUE FURNATURE DEALER FAILS

CREDITORS OF SOLOMON SAYLES ANGRY Co., dealer in antique furniture at Nos. 246 and 400 for $83.404 in favor of Henry Lestnsky for money which the latter had lent to him at various times the Sheriff, and Deputy-Sheriff Mulvaney took charge of both stores. The business was founded many years ago by D. Morley, who gave it up in many years ago of the second to Broadway, and later was merged into a corporation, with a capital done 1, and since 1891 Mr. Sypher has carried on the business alone. He generally claimed a capital of rating at Bradstreet's, and only a low credit rating. His inventory of May 1, 1894, showed assets of $287,-600 and Habilities of $125,000. The total Habilities now, his lawyers think, will reach nearly $200,000 No estimate can be given as to the value of the assets. Mr. Sypher said last night that he confessed judgment with the understanding that the judgment was not to be used unless other creditors instituted proceedings.

It is probable that the assignment to Charles A. Hess, which was made by Solomon Sayles, the wholesale butcher who recently failed, will be contested by Sayles's creditors, and an attempt will be made to prove that it was fraudulent. Mr. Sayles's reputation was such that his verbal promise was PROFESSOR JAMESON OUTLINES THE WORK OF secepted at par. His failure was hastened by the lling of two attachments against his property. It was believed, however, that the assets would amount to more then the Habilities, but on Tuesday the assigner, Mr. Hess, said that, while the Habilities would amount to $195,000, the assets were nominally $162,710, and actually only $112,321. A committee of the creditors decided to allow a setlement on a basis of 50 cents on the dollar, allowng five years for liquidation of the estate, out this proposition was rejected by both assignce and assignor. Now the angry creditors have employed Julius Lehmann to begin proceedings to set aside the assignment, on the ground of fraud.

against the White Locomotive Works, of this city and Buffalo, N. Y., for $44,374, in favor of John L. White, its former treasurer and general manager, for money advanced and salary in the last two years. The Sheriff placed a keeper in the New-York office, at No. 63 Wall-st. Mr. White also obtained an attachment on Wednesday for $150,000 against Heary McKenzie, who was president of the company, on a claim of damages for false arrest.

PROCEEDINGS IN LOCAL COURTS. The long litigation over the assets of the Murray Hill Bank resulted yesterday in the abandon ment of the attempt to withhold them from Miles

M. O'Brien and Spencer Trask, the receivers apnted by the courts in this city. Justice Truax handed down a decision several days ago ordering Messrs Hobbs and Odell, the receivers appointed by Justice Dickey, in Brooklyn, to turn over the bank's assets, but they falled to obey the order of the Cour. A motion was to have been made hefore Justice Truax yesterday to punish Attorney-General Hancock for contempt of court in falling to comply with the decision, but the matter was settled out of court.

Abraham Horowitz, after a stay in the Ward's Island Insane Asylum since August, was dis charged yesterday in consequence of habeas corpu charged yesterday in consequence of habeas corpus proceedings brought in the Supreme Court. Frederick M. Evarts, of No. 62 Wall-st., representing the State, explained that Horowitz had shown a homicidal tendency originally, but responded to the treatment at the asylum. When he seemed almost ready for discharge, he had a fight with another patient and received a black eye. He was so excited over this affair that it was deemed best to hold him a little longer. Mr. Evarts expedited the trial of the sult as much as possible.

Joseph H. Choate, as counsel for Mrs. Sanford White, asked Justice Truax, in the Supreme Court advocate its passage.

THE MANUSCRIPT COMMISSION.

its meeting yesterday morning in Hamilton Hall of Columbia University. In the absence of the Rev. Dr. Storrs, Professor Justin Winsor presided. The meeting opened with a report by Professor J. Franklin Jameson, of Brown University, upon the work of the Historical Manuscript Commission. In the course of his paper on this subject Professor Jameson spoke of the attempt of the Commission to secure the co-operation of libraries and the owners of historical documents and to collect information regarding manuscript material for American history and its preservation. The Commission consisted of Professor Jameson, Dr. Douglas Brymmer, Archivist of the Dominion of Canada; Talcott Williams, of Philadelphia; Professor William P. Trent, of the University of the South, and Profes-sor Frederick J. Turner, of the University of Wisthe Commission have been numerous and full, and the Commission has now in its possession a very large body of information on the subject. Among other interesting material which the Commission intends to publish is a transcript from the Public Record Office in London of the letters to the For Record Office in London of the letters to the Foreign Office from Thomas Bend, British Consul at Philadelphia from 188 to 1812. A number of other important documents will shortly be issued in a series by the Commission.
Professor F. J. Turner, of the University of Wisconsin, contributed a paper upon "The West As a Field for Historical Study," after which Dr. O.
G. Libby, of the University of Wisconsin, read a plea for the study of votes in Congress. J. M.
Callahan, of Johns Hopkins University, spoke upon "The Northern Lake Front Frontier During the Civil War."

The sinal secsion of the convention was held last night, when papers were read by Miss Louisa P. Haskel, of Radell'se College, upon "Langdon Cheves and His Administration of the United States Pank"; by Professor G. B. Adams, of Yale, upon "The Influence of the American Revolution on England's Government of Her Colonies"; by E. C. Burnett, of Brown University, upon "The Government of Federal Territories in Europe and America," and by Professor C. H. Haskins, of the University of Wisconsin, upon "Some Letters of Mediaeval Students."

Officers of the association were elected, as follows: President, James Schouler; first vice-president, the Rev. Dr. George P. Fisher; second vice-president, James Ford Rhodes; secretary, Herbert B. Adams, and curator, A. Howard Clark. The Rev. Dr. Richard S. Storrs, the retiring president, was added to the Executive Council, in accordance with the usual custom, and the Rev. Dr. E. H. Gallaudet was elected a councilman. The association adjourned to meet in Cleveland, Onio, next December.

SUICIDE ON HIS DEATHBED.

A YOUNG MAN DYING FROM CONSUMPTION CUTS HIS THROAT WITH A RAZOR.

Philip Sturm, a bookkeeper, thirty-three years old, of No. 241 East Twenty-fifth-st., committed calcide at his home yesterday afternoon by cutting his throat with a razor. The young man was un married. He had been fil some time with con sumption, and was not expected to live many days, While his father and the trained nurse who at-tended him were out of the room, he got hold of a razor and cut his throat.

The young man's father and brother are in the upholstering and decorative business, having an office in their flat, which is on the ground floor. His sickness is the only thing which his family can ascribe as a motive for his suicide.

HALF CENTURY OF A PUBLISHING FIRM. At the St. Denis Hotel, the staff of Charles Scribner's Sons, publishers, sat down to the fifth annual Christmas dinner Wednesday night, and also celebrated the liftleth arniversary of the es-tablishment of the house. John H. Dingman, who enjoys the distinction of having been longest with the firm, presided as toastmaster, and after an elaborate menu had been disposed of, called the guests to order." Under the title, "The Seribner Haif Century," he gave a brief history of the house, forty-one years of which he had himself tablished the custom of an annual Christmas dinner. He assured the employes of the firm that the success of the business really depended upon them, and said that no one who could observe the spirit which characterized the present occasion would have any fears for the future of the house. His remarks were received with frequent applause.

The toasts of the evening were then responded to in the following order: "A Merrie Ramble Through Our Catalogue," Rudolph C. Stolle, "Old English Times." Henry L. MORE LETTERS ON THE SENATORSHIP.

The Legislators who write letters to Senator Pavey in answer to his appeal for Joseph II. Choate for United States Senator, and declare for Mr. Platt in preference to Mr. Choate, seem to flock by sevens. Seven more letters from Assemblymen belonging to six interior counties were made public at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last evening. They were from Otto Keisey, of Livingston County: H. J. Pratt, of United County; Charles R-Goodsell, of Orange County; D. H. Mackey, of Delaware County, and Merton E. Lewis, of Monroe County.
